

For nearly 70 years, they took care of each other.
Now they get help from...
Windsor Place.

"We've been married a long time and always managed on our own, but it just got to where we couldn't take care of ourselves anymore. That's why we came to Windsor Place. It's been a wonderful experience. Everyone has been so good to us. The staff is wonderful. To put up with us, they'd have to be pretty special. We do a lot of joking around. The food is really good. We're very comfortable here. Our room has a nice view of outside. We have lots of space to move around and it's not too crowded. We're well-satisfied at Windsor Place."

- Robert & Lorene Palone, Residents at Windsor Place

Robert and Lorene Palone will be celebrating their 70th wedding anniversary later this year. They've stuck with each other through thick and thin. When times got tough, they knew they could always count on each other for support.

For years, Robert and Lorene lived in South Coffeyville with their three sons nearby. As they got older, they were finding it difficult to care for themselves. They knew they needed more care than they could give each other.

That's when they decided to come to Windsor Place.

Since their arrival, Robert and Lorene have been impressed with the quality of care and friendliness of the staff at Windsor Place. They also appreciated the fact that they could share a room and they could furnish it with their own belongings to make it feel like home.

We're so pleased that the Palones chose Windsor Place. We wish them many more years of happiness together.
